Lobley Hill

Headteacher: Mr A Tricoglus

At the end of last half term Chinese visitors came to look round school from Zhongjiacun School in Wuhan.

They presented Mr Tricoglus with a special plaque which is a symbol of good luck. If the plaque is hung upside down it means that good luck is coming!

Next week all parents and carers are invited to Parental Consultations. Please make sure that the response slip is returned to school to book your appointment. This is an important meeting, when you will hear about the progress your child has made during this year. If you are unable to visit during the week commencing 21 June, please contact your child's classteacher to make an alternative appointment.

Order your new school uniform here.
